Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 1600 hrs

The footprint has changed downtown with the western perimeter to be fully defined but it appears to be at Kent. The remainder of Wellington is closed to unofficial vehicle traffic, as well as Elgin around the War Memorial. Most traffic control measures have been removed causing some traffic issues which are being mitigated.

There was a group of protestors that gathered in the morning at Confederation Park. The group, numbering at close to 50 people marched to Parliament Hill on the sidewalk. They remained there for a while, then marched on the sidewalks to SJAM and Booth where they continued to protest. After multiple parking tickets were issued to supporting protestors that attended, the group broke in the afternoon with them returning to Parliament Hill. At it's largest, the group was between 100-150 people.

A convoy of approximately 130 personal vehicles from Quebec did cross the bridge to Hawkesbury and joined the group there. The intent of the combined group is yet unknown but PLT have been engaged with them.
